

Roaring his defiance a moment before his death. A striking photo of an African lion, mortally wounded, charging down to the water's edge to send forth a challenge to the huntsmen across the stream.
Underwood & Underwood.

Greece's new ruler, King George, who succeeded to the throne following the abdication of his father, Constantine.
International.

Marquis Curzon, still a power in England's affairs regardless of political changes photographed with the Marchioness.
Pacific & Atlantic.

Little Miss Alice Nannsen, daughter of Mrs. Robert Nannsen, and her pet pony on a morning canter through the park.
Keystone.

Edgar Allan Poe 3d, grandson of the distinguished author whose name he bears, is an ardent poloist and a leading player of the Coronado Country Club at Coronado Beach, Cal.
Pacific & Atlantic.

A real "army" girl whose ancestors have been in the service for many generations is Miss Betty Byrne, daughter of the late Col. Bernard A. Byrne and stepdaughter of Chief Justice Stanton J. Peelle of Washington.
Keystone.

France's bravest and most decorated officers, in solemn procession, proudly carrying the battle flags and regimental colors used in the great war at the celebration of Armistice Day in Paris.
International.